Yesterday and Today
75 YEARS OF KENT

Here I go swingin' low across that county line

searchin' for the soul that left me behind.

And if I find that peace
of mind,

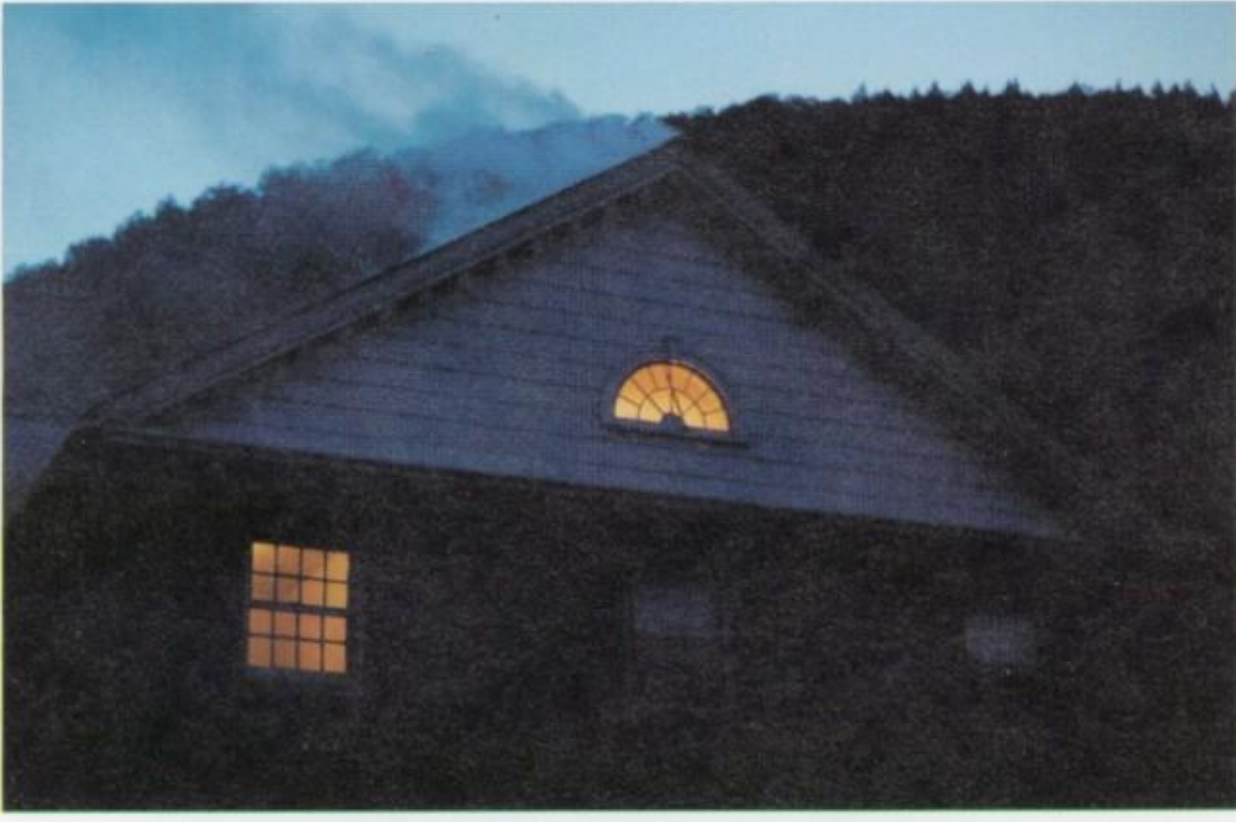

I'll be back again . . .

swingin' back across that county line.

In Memoriam
Sidney Norwood Towle Jr.

1913-1980

We are gathered here now because we have lost our headmaster. At Kent School we will see his face and hear his voice no more. There is no use pretending that our grief is anything but well-founded. But we are gathered here before God not only to tell our grief and to demonstrate our love and admiration for Sidney Towle, but to celebrate in triumph and in gratitude a life lived so well, a game played out with such strength and grace . . .

Then . . .

We were alarmed the other day when Hector, the School electrician, came through the dining hall on a "test run". As we watched him put his finger in every light socket and recoil sharply with a pleased expression on his face, terms such as self-destruction and hari-kari ran through our minds. However, we were put at rest when he noticed our horrified expressions, and asked indignantly how the heck we would go about testing the wiring.

1981 KENT DEDICATION

The Class of 1981 dedicates its yearbook to Mr. John Almquist.

Mr. Almquist has given Kent School a wealth of knowledge and experience which will be sadly missed after his retirement. He brought to his English students not only a new and original approach to English, but also tales from the Merchant Marine and Montclair. If one did not know him from the classroom, he could often be spotted behind the piano, playing for all who would listen and teaching all who were willing to sing.

Thank you John Almquist.

The Yearbook

1981. A year like no other. A year of happiness and of sadness. A year of subtlety and turmoil. Of successes and failures. Of death and rebirth . . . Of beginning and end.

1981. The class and the year. Both have lived through a multitude of experiences: Mr. Towle's death, soccer's championship, SAT's and college applications, the fire, the guys' Top Ten, Jeff Schabb, spring's successful girls' and boys' sports, Prize Day, and Fr. Schell's appointment. We hope this book has captured some of the joy and trauma of this past year.

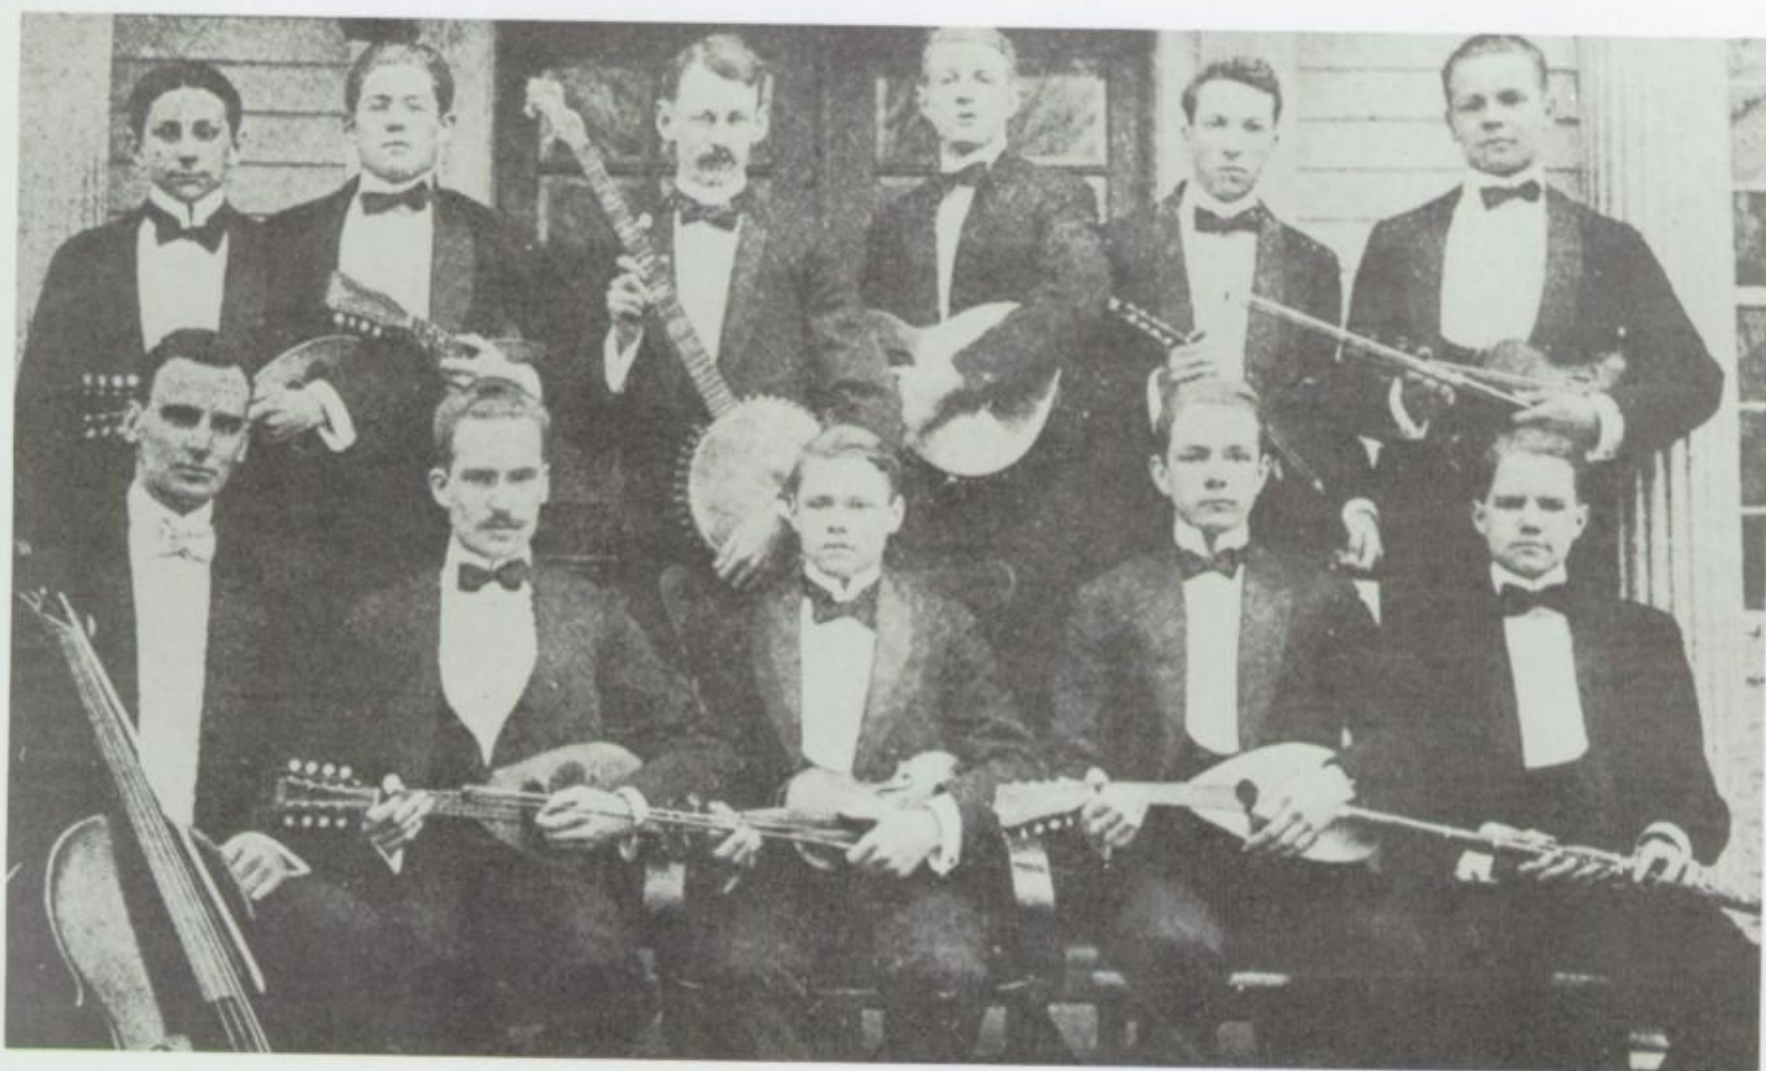

1981 KENT would not have been a book without the invaluable help of many people. Most importantly, a special thanks to Mr. Hinnens who must have had some kind of undying faith in us, even when things were getting slow. Also to Mrs. Fax, whose never-ending enthusiasm always helped us. To Clay Griffith and Ann Laschever go my thanks for being two great editors. (Because they procrastinated as much as I did.) I must also thank Mrs. Howard, for without her help in the archives we would not have been able to have a 75th anniversary issue.

1981. A year like no other.

Then . . . 1957

During a hockey meeting a few days ago, Bill Nadal was exhorting the candidates for the first team to lay aside the nicotine habit and condition themselves for the coming season. One of his suggestions was for every boy to procure a pair of rubber balls and carry them at all times, squeezing them to develop their wrists. The idea got to everyone except Chang Drinker, who, after mulling the problem over, asked: "Is rocks o.k., sir?"

. . . And Now 1981

A major change in this year's training regimen was implemented by Coach Timothy Scott. The team did much more long distance running than last year. With this change came the "mystery runs" in which Scott would take the top fourteen runners in a van and leave them in an unknown place and then go ahead with the van leaving arrows and messages by the side of the roads to be followed by the runners. This system proved to work well until Chris Pschorr decided not to follow the arrows one day and was found nine miles later in Gaylordsville.

FALL SPORTS

Soccer

After losing three of its first six games, the 1980 Varsity Soccer team rallied for nine straight league wins winning the Western New England Prep School Soccer Association championship and earning a place for itself alongside the great Kent teams of the past. Winning soccer has become an established tradition at Kent in the nearly thirty years since play began. Six league titles since 1970 have made Kent a marked team on every team's schedule. Avon, Deerfield, and Choate prepared themselves well early in the season hoping to topple a relatively inexperienced Kent team. They succeeded in hanging three costly losses on the young squad. However, the tough early season games gave the team the game experience necessary to begin a remarkable climb to the top of the league. Peter Phleger, who had scored only one goal in the first six games, scored fourteen times in the next ten. Captain Excel Shikwane, who had not scored a varsity goal in two seasons, tallied eight times. David Genovese and Tiny Campillo in goal and the strong defense of Eric Betke, Mike Lucarelli, Tom MacClarence, Kevin McLaughlin, Rob Richardson, and David Rost tightened up posting five shutouts and allowing only nine goals in the last ten games. With each win, the team's confidence in one another grew. Even a non-league loss to New Jersey prep powerhouse Lawrenceville did not shake the team. A come from behind win over an undefeated Salisbury team, an easy 6-1 victory over Trinity-Pawling, and shutout wins over traditional rivals Taft, Westminster, and Hotchkiss demonstrated that Kent could win in any circumstances. The final league game against Loomis proved to be a classic encounter between two evenly matched teams. Unable to get untracked Kent only managed three shots on goal in the scoreless first half. While the team regrouped at halftime faith and belief in one another were the topics of conversation. Those who did not believe were soon convinced when Phleger's two goals sealed the win and the championship. This year's team will be one that future Kent teams can take heart from. The old adage that a game or a season is not over until the last play is made was dramatically demonstrated by this year's squad. The winning tradition has been passed on by graduating seniors Eric Betke, Rob Constable, Tod Cracas, Mike Lucarelli, Tom MacClarence, Kevin McLaughlin, Tod Perry, Peter Phleger, Rob Richardson, Jim Sadler, John Stichter, Nkwane Shikwane, Scott Stevenson, Eric Sutherland, and Joe Tappan. If the tradition has any validity than we can expect the team built around Kendall Andrews, Dodge Bingham, Tony Cabrales, Tiny Campillo, Kevin Coogan, Lach Elting, David Genovese and David Rost to challenge for the top in 1981.

Football

It would be too easy to write off this season as unsuccessful; we ended with a 3-5 record. It would also be unfair to some very loyal, hardworking young men who displayed physical and emotional toughness throughout the year. The simple fact was that we could not score. We lost our last four games: 14-7, 8-0, 6-0, and 10-6. Our defense was immense but our offense never quite "got it together."

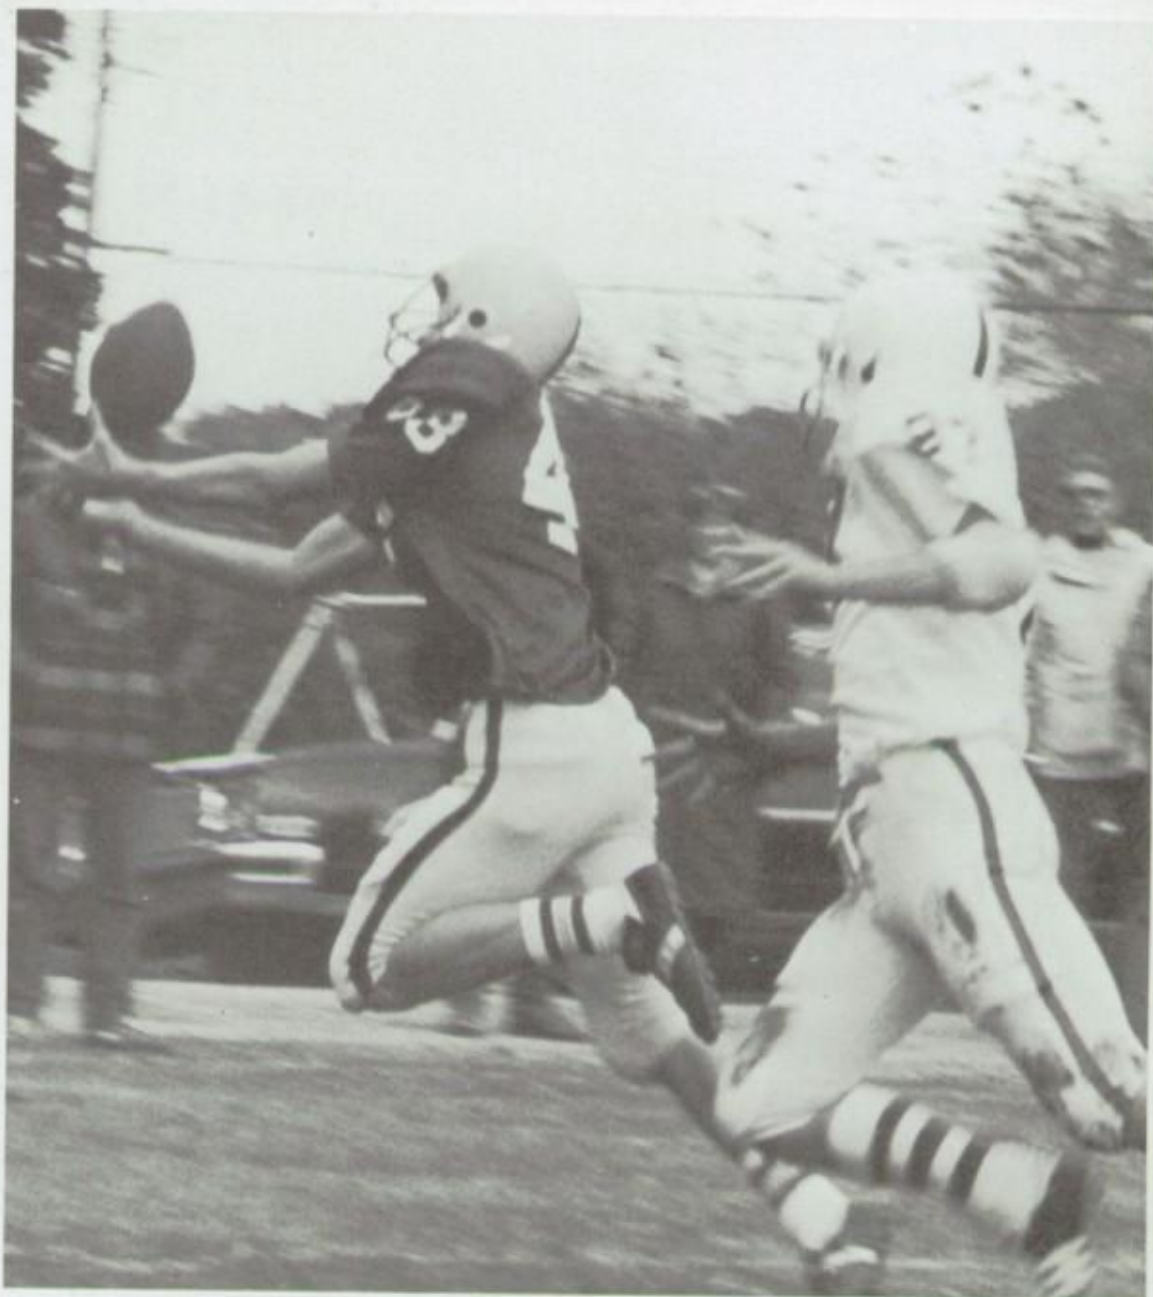

I can look with pride to the leadership of Mike Wright and Paul Devereaux and to the many who played beyond their potential. Our spirit was never dampened either on or off the field. The tradition of Kent football was left in tact by this group of young men and they can indeed be proud of their effort.

My special thanks to Don Gowan and Larry Piatelli whose very able help is appreciated. I would also like to thank this year's football team; a special group who will leave a much stronger mark than the won/lost record will ever indicate.

Cross Country

This season was not without its surprises and highpoints. The formation of the Kent Runner's Union helped the team to unify itself and get mentally prepared for the races. With the effort and leadership of Peartree and the K.R.U., the team was able to defeat perhaps its biggest rival, Taft, who it had not beaten in three years. This was also a surprise in that Taft had previously beaten Kent in the beginning of the season at the Canterbury Invitational.

A major change in this year's training regimen was also implemented by Coach Timothy Scott. The team did much more long distance running than last year. With this change came the "mystery runs" in which Scott would take the top fourteen runners in a van and leave them in an unknown place and then go ahead with the van leaving arrows and messages by the side of the roads to be followed by the runners. This system proved to work well until Chris Pschorr decided not to follow the arrows one day and was found nine miles later in Gaylordsville.

"Much of the team's success must be attributed to number one and two runners Silvi and Cullen respectively who did not ever fail the team" praised Scott. "They were good for each other in that they paced each other through each race until one or the other would break out ahead near the finishes. Last year the team lacked this sort of duo."

Scott stressed the fine leadership qualities and effort that Captain Peartree exhibited as a consistent number three runner. Daniel Mahoney and Andrew Constable's constant improvement throughout the Fall was also commended by Scott. Scott was impressed with Albert Reilingh who as a third former stayed on the bottom of the varsity throughout the season.

Returning members of the varsity next year will be David Singh, Andrew Constable, and Albert Reilingh.

Girls' Soccer

After last year's record of 1-8-1, the girls' soccer team could only do better; and better they did. Through hard work and determination the team was able to finish the season with a winning record of 5-4-1.

There were many well earned and long awaited victories throughout the season. Defeating Westminster 2-1, Choate 1-0, and then in the last game tying Loomis 2-2 are just a few examples of the team's capabilities.

The team will only lose four seniors to graduation: Abby Tyson, Cathy Durfee, Peggy Reed, and Jennifer Wooters. Therefore, next year's team should be very strong. Good luck to next year's captain, Sarah Montgomery and to the returning players: Emily Ferman, Sasha Guilsher, Heather Gow, Marty Harrington, Sarah Houghton, Holly Hillenbrand, Robin Insley, Debbie Neill, Laurie Pilling, Mary Shafer, and Betsy Vick. A special thanks to our manager Abby Torres and of course Mr. Runquist for his time and patience.

Field Hockey

The 1980 field hockey team consisted of a great group of players who worked to a successful season record of 4-4-5. Even though we had our five ties in a row, we never lacked the enthusiasm that allowed us to win our last three games. We feel that our continuing vitality should be accredited to the dedication and exceptional coaching of Miss Walcott and Miss Sutherland.

We had a terrific season with numerous unforgettable memories . . . for those that went to Springfield College: the Ground Round, strawberry daiquiris, and the co-ed dorm, 'Dead Bug,' the cheerleaders with their 'Horny Hats' and their Boom-Bangs, Rawlings Rockers, the midnight visitors, our wild and crazy Halloween practice, the Holiday suicide run, Vanessa's first Big Mac, our Mommy at Friendly's, Miss WalNUT, and many, many more.

It was a great pleasure to act as your captains this year. We wish the best of luck to you all; especially co-captains Carroll Driscoll and Kate Saltus. Again, thanks for an outstanding season and a special thanks to you, Miss Walcott, Miss Sutherland, Miss Nargesian, our reliable managers Delilah and Mimi, our our faithful spectators. We appreciated all your support.

Best Wishes to next year's team,

Tracy and Diana

Remember . . .

KGBC

The 1980 KGBC season was an outstanding and memorable one. The KGBC was under the supervision of two new coaches, Mrs. Victoria Conklin and Mr. Mark McWhinney. With our new coaches and the fantastic girls that were in the KGBC, we were able to have a successful season. Many of the girls were new and inexperienced in the competitive racing of crew, but the spirit and dedication we had overcame our inexperience and pulled us through each one of our races triumphantly. The first boat consisted of Kathy Kolligan, Treva Ingrasci, Amy Givan, Alix Poole, Libby Collins, Lissa Perry, Liz Angier, Emmy Entwistle, and Busy Auchincloss. The second boat consisted of Brook Tart, Kim Johnston, Emilie Christie, Erika Worm, Janet Booth, Caroline Tobias, Ana Schofield, Virginia Insley, and Maria Manwaring.

This year KGBC started a new tradition by taking both the first and second boats to the Head of the Connecticut Regatta. We were entered in the Junior Women's Eights division. It was a tough 3½ mile race, but we did a great job. First boat finished second behind Simsbury's second boat by four seconds but beating Tabor! The climax of our season came when we raced Simsbury head-to-head, our biggest rival, here at Kent. Our determination wasn't quite enough as first boat lost by only six seconds. Nevertheless, we were very proud of the job we did.

Special thanks go to the people who gave us so much support, particularly Mr. Perry, Mr. Poole, and Ditto. Also, personal thanks go to Mrs. Conklin, Mr. McWhinney, and the girls in KGBC for a most memorable and satisfying season. I'll never forget it! Good luck next year Mrs. 'C' and Treva!

WINTER SPORTS

Hockey

Anyone familiar with the Housatonic Valley Hockey League is aware of the tough competition each of the five teams faces. Just about any team can upset any other. This year's varsity, as always, had to face these plus an assortment of talented schools both Canadian and American. They also played six college junior varsity teams. In each game, regardless of the final score, Kent played admirably, never quitting.

A record of 14-12 does not reflect the 1981 varsity's resiliency, dedication, and spirit. Many did not play as often as others yet they too remained consistent and supportive. Co-captain Kevin McLaughlin, Eric Betke, Rich Pettit, and Jeff Merrill, all usually defensemen, never complained when jostled between defense and forward. Jack Piatelli, Rick Veneziano, and Mike Di Sandro all proved their ability to put the puck in the net. Jim Carpenter and Jim Piatelli always hustled on both offense and defense. The members of the third line — Eric Smith, Scott Stevenson and Jock Magadini — managed to score while rarely getting penalties.

The defense was equally as capable as the forwards. Pat Davis, Todd Clark, and especially Co-captain Tim O'Connor played a physical game and frequently brought the puck through the other team's zone to score. The goalies should not be forgotten as they kept Kent in many games. Although Tim Hall played most of the games, Blair Oliver remained supportive when not in the net. The nine returning players look forward to the 1982 season.

Basketball

Kent's Varsity Basketball team completed another successful season in March with an outstanding victory over Trinity Pawling. The team was young and inexperienced at the start of the season, but combined the talents of a few Varsity players from the year before: Steve Edmonds, Cliff Rucker, David Barclay, Tony Cabrales, Mallory Miller, and three year captain Mike Wright. Some additional talent came from last year's J.V. team: Scott O'Callaghan, Roger Braxton, Tim Stanton, Kevin Ross, and Chris Hart. Rounding out the team were newcomers Chris McDougall and Eric Sutherland. Three of the starters had little if any varsity game experience.

After two heart-breaker losses in the Hill School Tournament the squad started its regular season in January. Kent began with the hope that hard work and playing together could provide another successful season. The league was particularly strong with teams such as Avon, Hotchkiss, Kent, T.P., and Taft all with good teams. Kent beat Taft in overtime in Kent's first league game. Kent also dealt Hotchkiss its first loss of the season on a tremendous shot at the buzzer by Steve Edmonds. Perhaps the best game of the season came in March with the last game against T.P. Everything seemed to fall into place. Playing without the injury plagued Chris McDougall, Mike Wright led the team's pressing defense to a 12 point win.

Kent finished tied for second in the league with Hotchkiss, both with a 8-4 record. Kent's over-all record stood at a very respectable 12-8.

At the close of the season a special mug was awarded to Mike Wright by the coaches and players. It honored Mike's four years as a Varsity players and his three years as captain. More particularly, Mike can be recognized for his outstanding leadership, fine play, and contribution to the team.

Six players return to form the nucleus of next year's strong team. This year's team, however, was characterized by team effort. It was a fine team which continued the tradition of excellence of Kent basketball.

Girls' Basketball

The 1980 Girls' Varsity Basketball Team cannot be assessed by its team record but by its individual achievements. With six returning varsity players, five new additions, and a new coach, the team looked strong. However, the team suffered many setbacks throughout the season and were never able to recover. Laurie Pilling was our high scorer with 157 points; she shot 77% of her foul shots for the season. Danielle Woerz had 62 rebounds and forced 60 turnovers for the season. Although our record was not an impressive one, we made up for it in spirit and individual accomplishments.

The J.V. Team produced a highly admirable record. With only two returning players and seven new additions, the team's season was questionable. But, with the J.V.'s returning coach, Miss Bonenfant and some hard work, the team managed to pull off a winning season.

We would like to thank our faithful supporters, Mr. Mulligan (our mascot), Mrs. Sutherland (the donut lady), Mr. Cross (the silent supporter), Mr. Cracas (the bleacher ref), Miss Clark, and Al White (our kitchen spirit). Also, our managers, Carolyn Barton, Casandra Kieffer, and Ellen McBarnett who spent hard times putting up with us, taking stats, and cheering us on. Thank you all! Oh, and not to forget the team's two favorite optimists, Mr. Ditto Andrews and Mr. Ed Golden. We're gonna miss you guys!

Our deepest appreciation goes to the coaches, Miss Sutherland and all her lost sleep, Mr. Perkins and his pre-game jitters, and Miss Bonenfant with her "mellow control." Their time and dedication are appreciated. Good luck to next year's captains-elect, Laurie Pilling and Laura Legge.

Thanks to all of you, Keep playing our song, "I'm Coming Out" and GO FOR IT.

Squash

Though no one is quite sure how it has happened, the Kent varsity squash team has instilled fear in various teams throughout its league. A good example of this is the match scheduled with the Trinity College Freshmen. On two occasions the team did not appear, mumbling some unacceptable excuse about, of all things, flooded roads. But the players and coaches at Kent knew that Trinity was only trying to save itself from embarrassment at the hands of the Kent squad.

When the freshmen finally did arrive on the following Saturday, they found their fears to be well grounded. John Lightbourn continued to play spectacularly holding his opponent to less than six points in every game. Captain Rob Richardson and Rob Constable played fine squash and won in three games, while Peter Phleger and Ward Gushee were forced to a fourth game before overcoming their opponents. Arthur Darboven again blessed the varsity with his presence when it was in need of an extra man due to an injury to Mike Lucarelli; he won in three games.

This 6-1 victory extended the team's win streak to two games, and greatly improved team moral. On this optimistic note, the team next travelled to Amherst to play their freshmen. Unfortunately, Amherst was not as awed by Kent as Trinity was, and handed the squad a 6-1 defeat. Coach Brad Humphries made the understatement of the year when mentioning that Amherst showed "a lot of depth," but he was more directly on target in stating that John Lightbourn again played a super-match to win the only point for Kent.

Most of the players, however, agree that they came out of the Amherst match with a positive feeling about their games. Arthur Darboven sums up the team sentiment well: "I always seem to play my best, but my opponent plays just a little better, and wins." This same phenomena occurred three days later when Choate travelled to Kent and also defeated the squad 6-1. This is perhaps the most frustrating feeling: when you know that you are playing your best but still losing. Number one player John Lightbourn's best was again better than his opponent's, as he topped Choate's ace in an exciting five-game match.

Girls' Squash

The 1981 Girls' Squash Team developed the right combination of talent, dedication, hard work, and fun to make this season the success it was. Our record of 10-2 stands as the best of any girls' sport since 1976, and we are proud of it. With a few position changes during the season the team consisted of Cathy Durfee, Ginny Bain, Libby Collins, Tracy Greene, Kim Johnston, Nancy Timmerman, Treva Ingrasci, Cindy Richardson, and Virginia Insley. We found our strength in working together and with our coaches Mr. Rand and Mr. Humphreys. Every victory that we had (and there were many!) was a result of their coaching. They had to teach many of us the fundamentals.

We will never forget the Durfee's hospitality, trips to Friendly's, or dancing on the van because they were part of the season also. Nor will some of us forget the 6 a.m. practice third form year with Tracy and Libby.

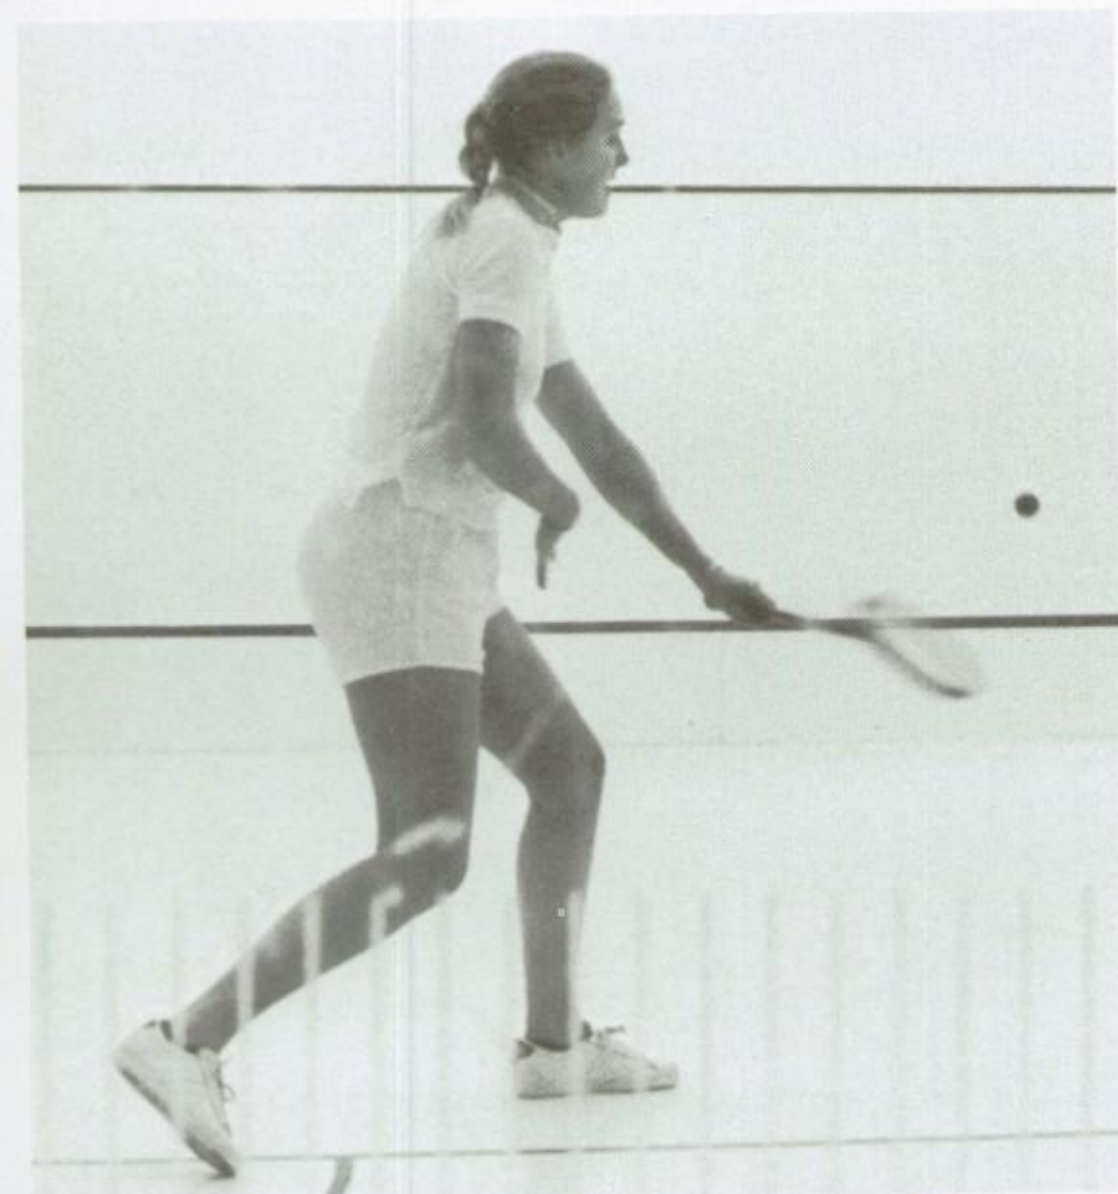

Sue Robinson asked us last year to beat Taft again. We did it 7-0. Someday, maybe next year, I want the team to BEAT CHOATE because they are the only team that we ever lost to!

Lots of luck to next year's captain — Cindy Richardson. Most of all — HAVE FUN!

WRESTLING

The wrestling team chalked up another win last week in a tri-meet against South Kent and the Brunswick School. Kent lost opening match to South Kent by a very slim margin due to the efforts of co-captain Chris Radkowski who won by a major decision and Aaron Nash who pinned his opponent. Both Andrew Purvis and Doug Perry won their matches by forfeit.

After wrestling South Kent, the Kent wrestlers faced a respectable Brunswick team from Greenwich. Kent lost points in the light weight division due to the absence of Dave Singh who was out with a fractured rib.

Shahriar Hakimi started the winning scoring drive for Kent by pinning his opponent. Following Hakimi's win were lamartino's win by major decision and pins by Radkowski and Nash. Again Purvis and Perry won their matches by forfeit. The most exciting and well fought match of the day was given to Pat Rodriguez, who after three long quarters lost to his opponent by only one point.

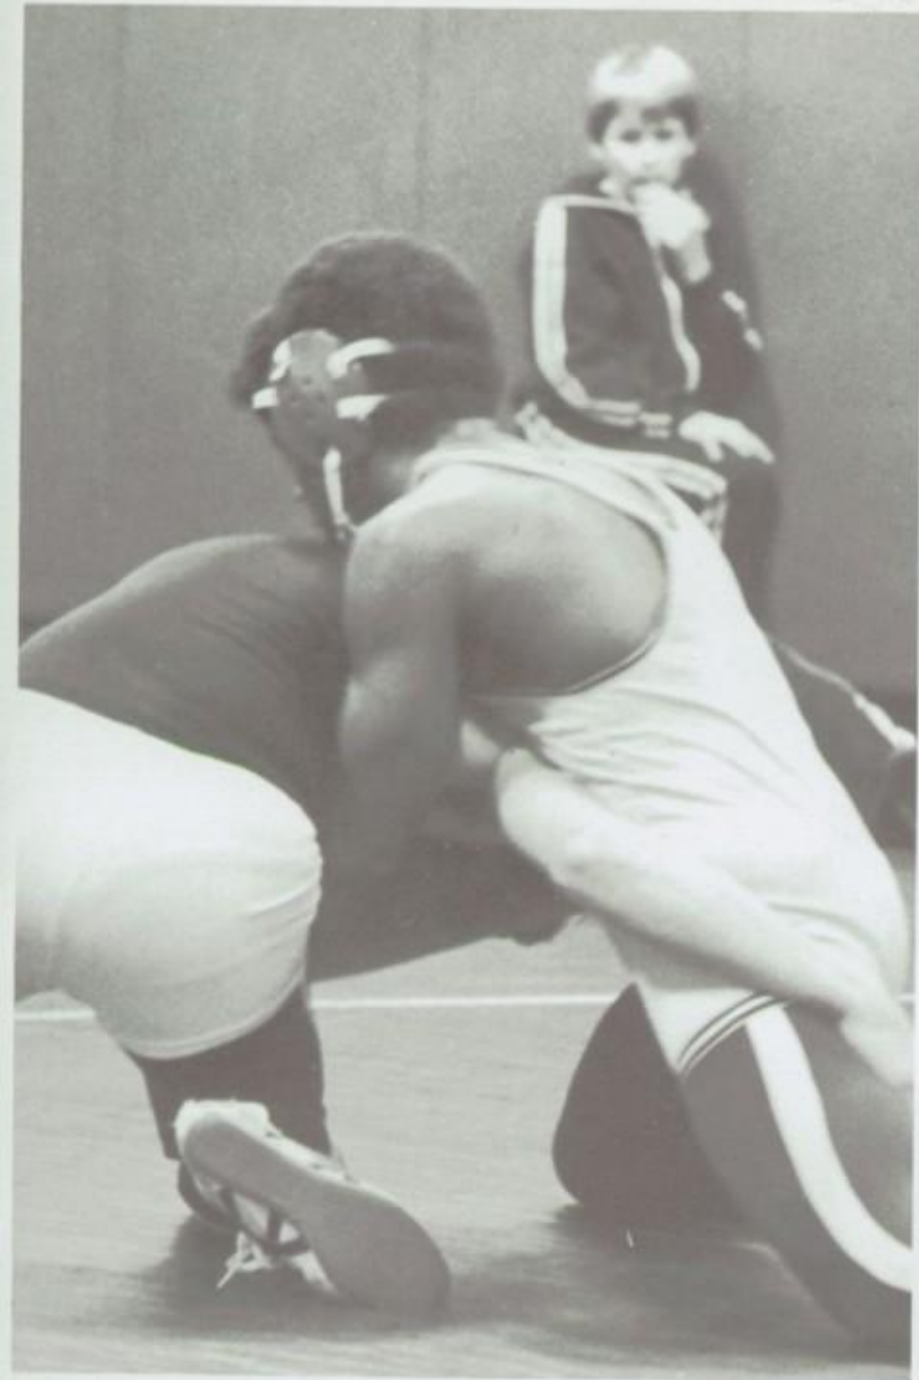

The closing meet of the season for the wrestlers was at Kingswood. After the meet was over, the Kent wrestlers could easily see why Kingswood wrestling was considered to be ranked number two in the prep-school league. The only wrestler scoring for Kent was John Paul Lincoln with a dramatic come back in his match which finished by pinning his opponent. The final score of the meet was 49-6 with Kingswood on top.

"It was a progressive year," reflects Coach Petkewicz the teams 2-11-1 record. "We could have done better, but we just needed more self discipline which would have resulted in a greater team discipline."

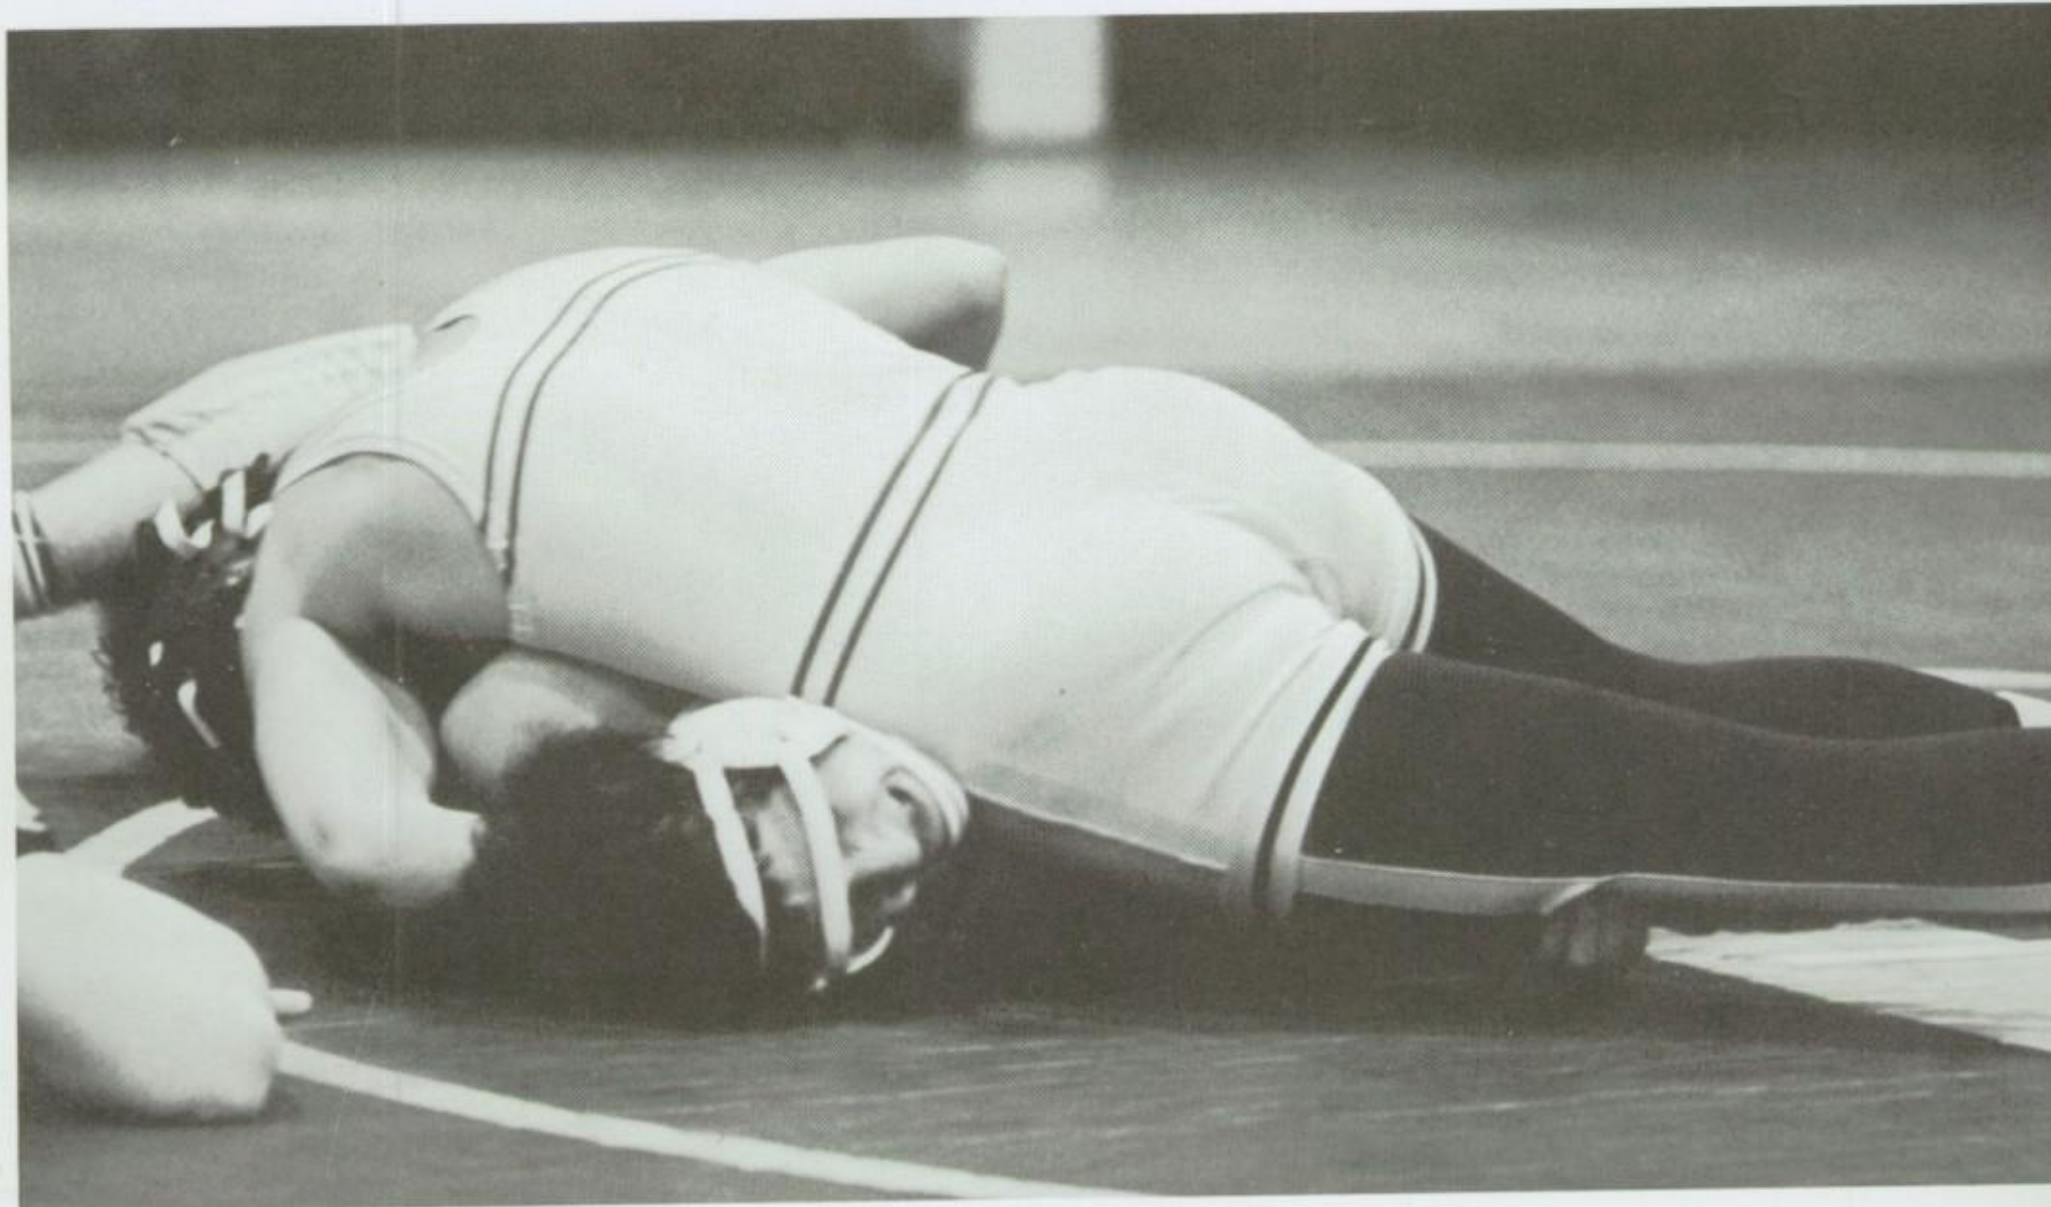

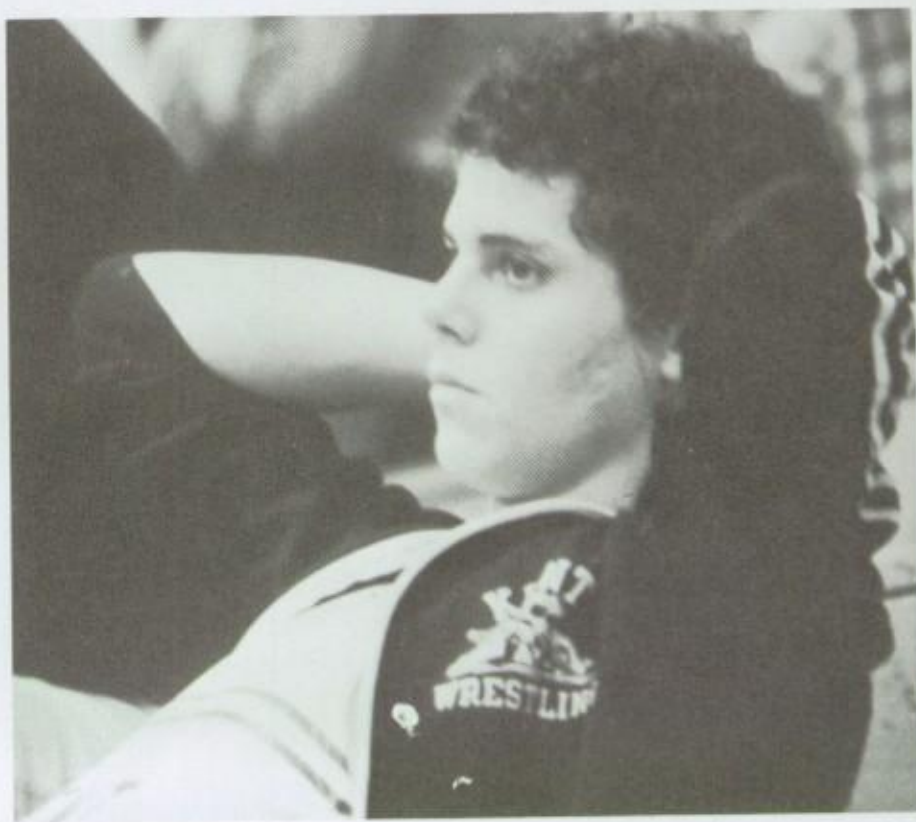

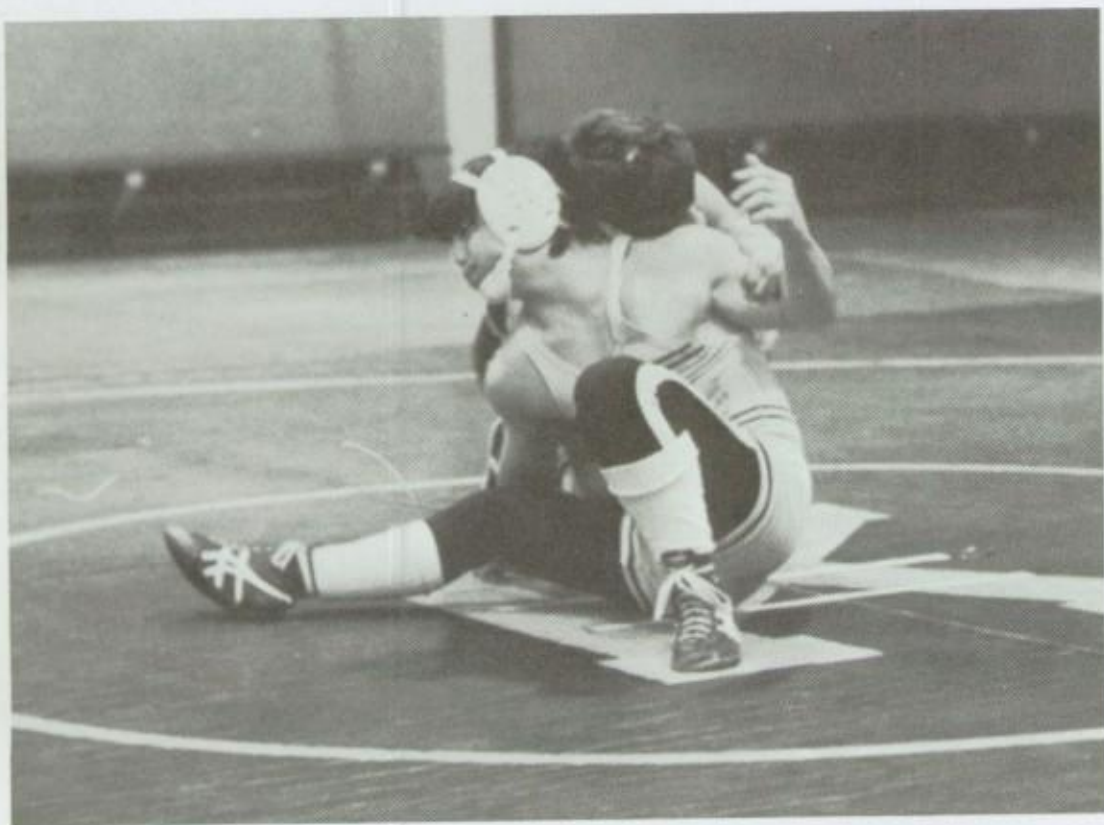

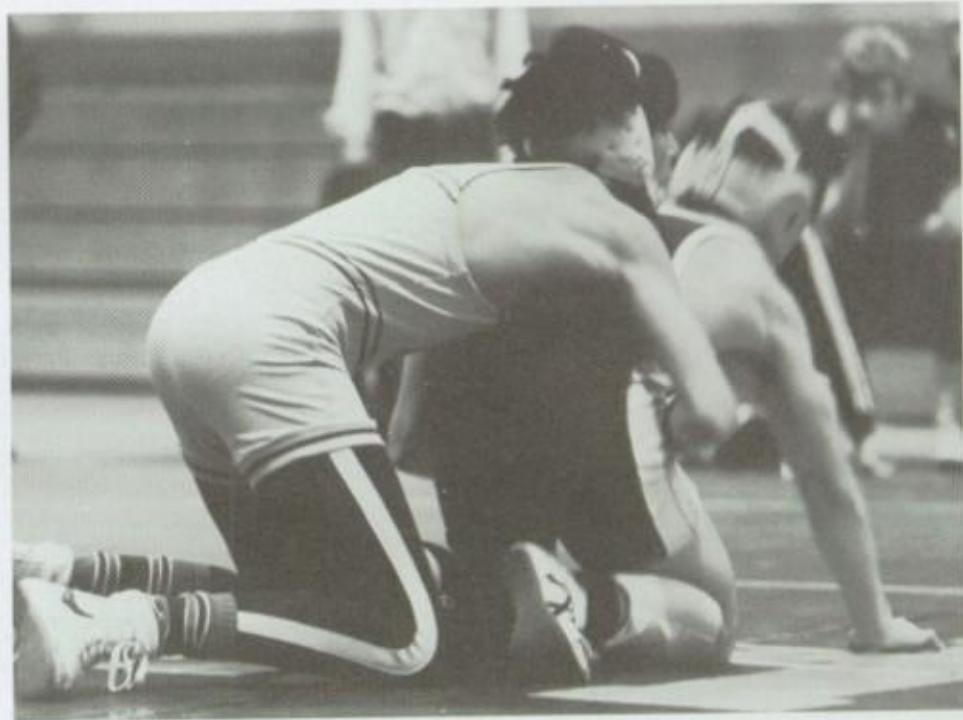

The team season ended with the Kingswood meet, but Nash, Perry and Radkowski participated in the state championships at Choate last Wednesday. "Now that the initial growing year is over," states Coach Petkewicz, "The team will have more discipline and much greater experience to work with when they return to competition next year."

Girls' Swimming

This year the 1981 Girls' Swim Team grew in size, strength, and spirit. The team was led by two dedicated coaches, Mr. Roney and Miss Walcott. Mr. Ludlow returned again to coach diving.

The team, young in age, performed well in and out of the pool. There were four new individual records set this season. The size of the team allowed the girls to show their strength through their spirit; especially when Fastina (the girls' mascot — a frog) was stolen and hung at the Suffield meet. The girls' team knew that Suffield had made a mistake when they stole Fastina. After a successful rescue mission the team swam to destroy Suffield.

The girls' team motto, "We are fast women, we have better times", was continued again this year. The work put in by the team in the pool and weight room proved the motto true, especially after finishing fourth out of the ten teams swimming in the Connecticut Championships. Best of luck to next year's team and their co-captains Amy and Lilibet.

Boys' Swimming

The 1981 swim team, under the patient whip of "Toots" Conklin, pulled through with a fine record to be proud of not only in the season but also in the CISSAC's. After last year's awesome team of "home grown" talent, Mr. Roney and Toots did not know what to expect and what ever hopes they had were put to the test on the first day of practice when half the team seemed to be drowning. After many, many miles of practice, polar bearing, and Lui Lui in the locker room the team pulled together to face the toughest year of competition we have had to face yet. Eth and Johnny's records and Kentish going from a 16th seed in the Connecticut's to a 3rd seed are some examples of this year's team's motovation. Well Rusty, I guess Kentish finally got you in 500. "Where's Chuck?" Palmer that is! Good luck Zellby, Luigi, Brownny, Gordo and the rest of the returning team.

Baseball

Varsity Baseball culminated one of the finest seasons baseball has ever had by capturing the league title with a 6-5 squeaker over Loomis. For head coach Cy Theobald, it was his second championship in three years while for assistant coaches Paul Brown and Artie Walters, it was their first championship in as many years of coaching. The season ended with an impressive 13-4 record.

Due to the lopsided league/nonleague game schedule, five of the six league games were played during the second half of the season. Solid pitching and a new element, the homerun, lead Kent to league game victories over Hopkins Grammer, Hotchkiss, Kingswood, and Loomis.

This team is one of the best ones Kent has ever had. The starting lineup of Wright, Coogan, Veneziano, Southworth, Dumoulin, Hart, Pettit, Piatelli, and McLaughlin has more victories than any other team in Kent's history. Rounding out the team were Aulander, Okwu, Andrews, Donaldson, Picone, Cullen, Tattersfield, and Gonzales.

This year we had a record number of 36 girls who showed up on opening day ready to give their all. There was so much enthusiasm and skill that we were able to form a Junior Varsity team for the first time. The season was fairly balanced throughout with wins and losses, but we proved our strength by defeating Loomis, giving us a winning record of 7-6.

Determination and spirit are what kept us alive during each game. We had our disappointments but the faith was always there. Everyone should be proud of her contribution and effort for we worked together as a team and won together as a team.

I would like to thank the JV team for all its cheers from the side lines and to congratulate the players, Miss Bonenfant, and Mr. Kerr on their winning season. I have also to thank all who came out to support us. It always helped. But we couldn't have done it without our fantastic coaches, Ditto and Mr. Perkins. They put up with a lot but we could always count on them. Good luck to the seniors, Emmy, Danielle, Alex, Delilah, and Lisa. Best wishes for another successful season to next year's team to all returning players. I wish you all the luck: Linda Cardello, Emily Ferman, Pam Fontana, Amy Givan, Marty Harrington, Anna King, Laura Legge, Maria Manwaring, Laurie Pilling, Cindy Richardson, and Kate Worthington. With Marty as captain you'll have no problem winning. Stick together and go for the gusto!

Finally, you guys always remember the spirit, especially, We are the team, We are the team, We are the Big #1!!! Farewell and enjoy

— Carolyn

Of my four years playing Lacrosse, this past season has certainly been the best in all respects. Our spirit and enthusiasm was never ending thanks to our ebullient cheerleading section!! Our skills and teamwork were continuously improving throughout the season — highlighted with the Taft game for Varsity and the Loomis game for Junior Varsity. Our record marked our first victory in three years. Although according to the figures our records of 4-5-1 and 0-9 are not considered winning seasons, however, to us they are in every other way!! And of course a special thank you to Miss Walcott and Miss Sutherland both who are responsible for such an enjoyable and memorable season.

Best of luck to you all next year,
I'll be back to watch you win,
Anna you'll do a terrific job!

Love,
Tracy

Boys' Lacrosse

This spring's Varsity Lacrosse team far outdid any expectations for its success. Not only did it finish the season with a fine 9-6 record but more importantly it won the Division II championship of the Western New England Lacrosse Association with a perfect 4-0 record. This was Kent's second championship ever.

About 25 players traveled to Virginia for a week of early practice at Episcopal High School. Despite John Ledbetter's opinion that the pin-ball machine was the highlight of the trip, the coaches felt that the scrimmage against Episcopal gave everyone confidence and played well considering the youth of the team.

Kent opened its season against New Canaan High School the first Sunday of School. Led by captains Paul Devereaux and Jack Piatelli, Kent played well before losing 7-6 in overtime. Kent then lost to Choate, the future Division I champs, 10-6. Kent won its first Division II game against Suffield 12-1 next. After a good 7-6 win over Division I Loomis, Kent beat Williston 7-5 to win its second Division II game. The highlight of the game was the stopover at Cumberland Farms when the bus broke down. Kent lost two games against tough Division I opponents Avon and Hotchkiss but beat Deerfield and Taft. The most important game of the season came against Westminster, always a tough Division II team and last year's championship team. Kent broke a close game open with five unanswered goals in the fourth period to win. Only Canterbury stood between Kent and the league championship.

Kent met Canterbury for the league. The lead shifted back and forth until Todd Clark scored the go-ahead goal for Kent with one second remaining in the half. Kent then came out in the third period to score seven unanswered goals to win 14-5 and to win the league.

This season was highlighted by real team play and steady improvement. John Hetzel, Steve Edmonds, Paul Devereaux, Phil Hills and Jack Piatelli were chosen Division II All-Stars. In all, the 1981 Lacrosse season was a tremendous success. Great team effort and significant improvement lead to one of the finest seasons Kent lacrosse has ever had.

Girls' Tennis

Tennis is frustrating, that's all there is to it.

Tennis is an individual sport, at least in singles it is one on one and in doubles it is battling to play well for your partner's sake and then to play well together to defeat the opponents. Our third doubles team, Holly Hillenbrand and Jennifer Lisle, has been awesome, losing only one match all season. They are a real doubles team. They work well individually and as a team to wipe their opponents off the court. Our second doubles team, Lilibet Foster and Liz Angier have also worked well together, beating their opponents at Kingswood-Oxford and Berkshire, 6-1, 6-0 and their opponents at Taft in three sets.

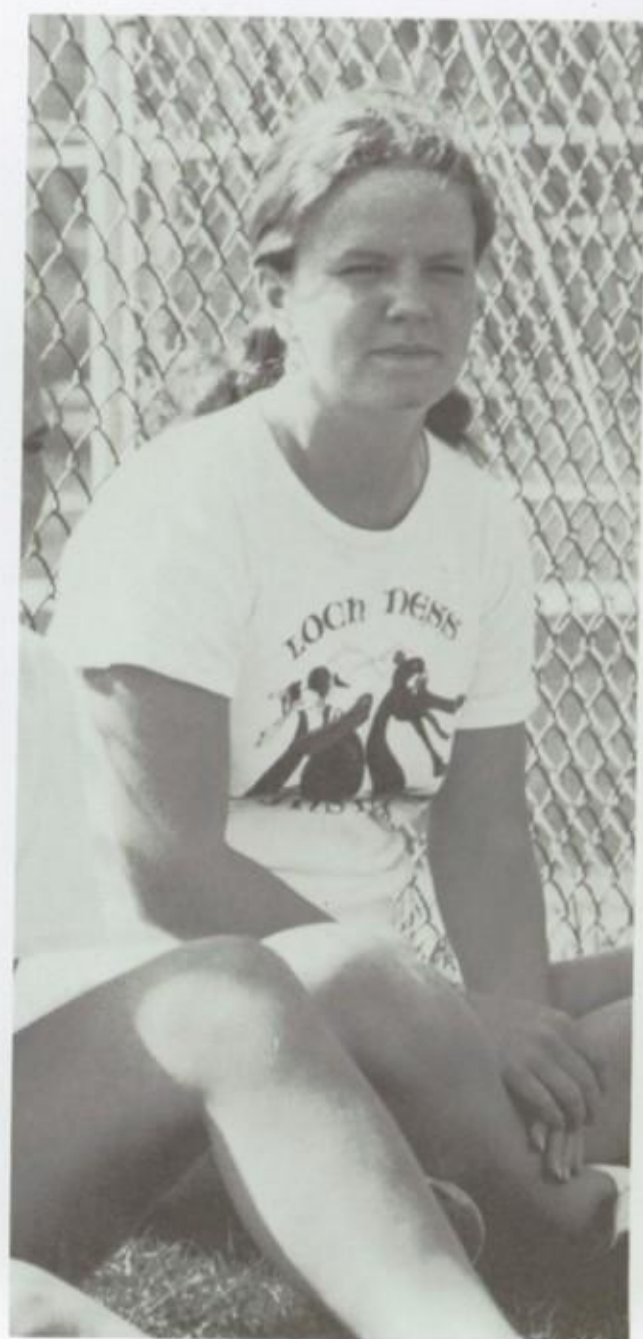

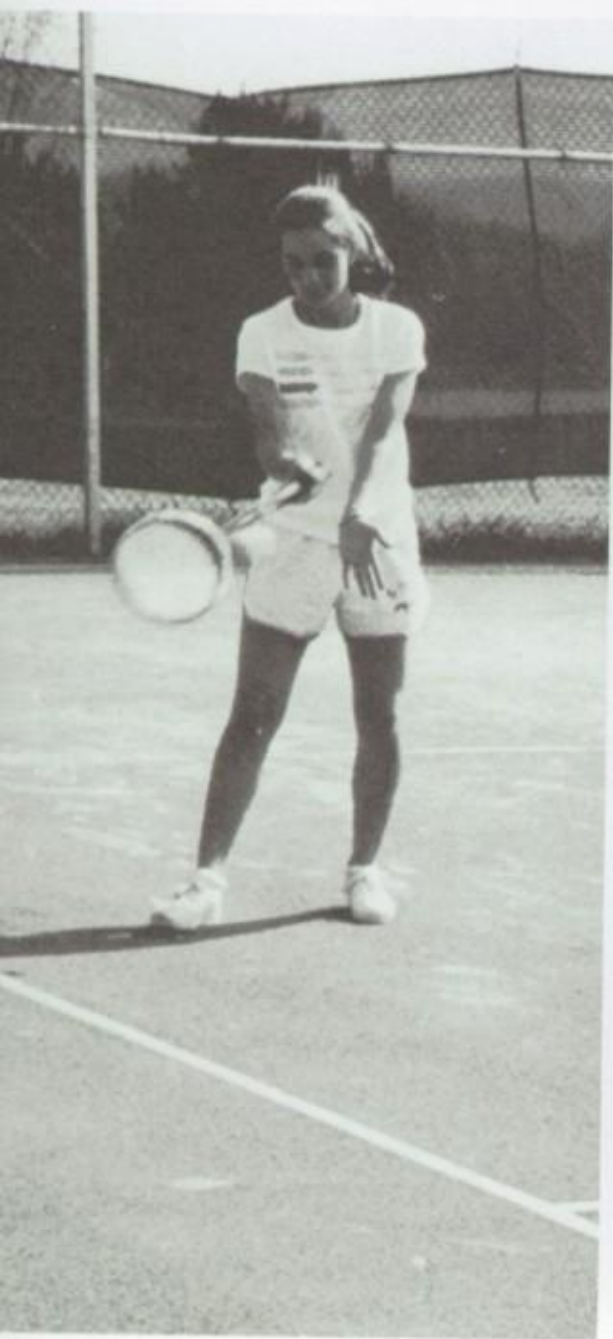

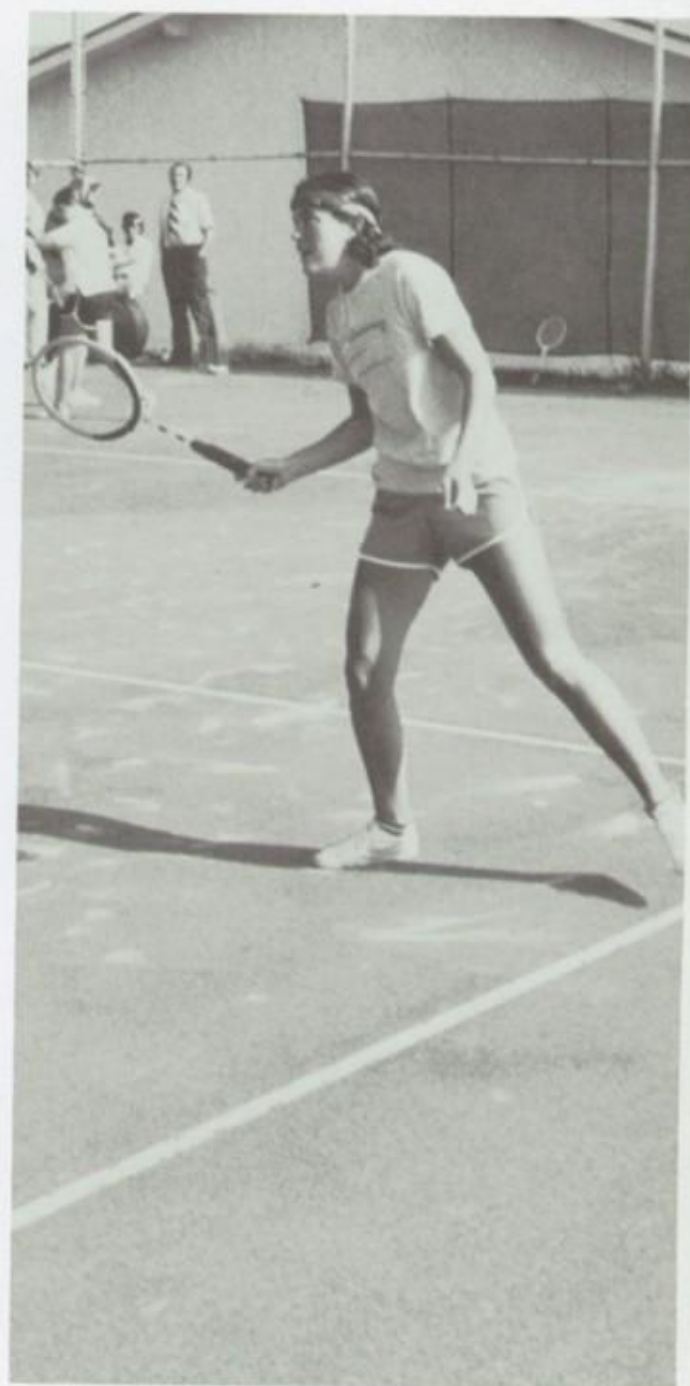

Singles is a different story. It is just you and that equally determined person standing on the other side of the net. You get so frustrated with yourself because you don't have a partner to blame if you lose. Sometimes it gets so tempting just to stand in the middle of the court, drop your racquet and scream. But you can't do it because that sort of behavior is unconventional. The closest one Kent player gets to this temptation is to stop and yell "LIZA."

Kent's number two, three and four players varied among Ginny Bain, Kim Johnston, Liza Rawlings and Stephanie Hall. Both Kim and Liza made great progress throughout the year. Liza came up to Varsity singles from J.V. singles and not only helped with her good play, but her musical talents were also good for a laugh or two. Number one player and co-captain Cathy Durfee, number two player Kim Johnston and number one doubles team Katie Vanderkloot and Cathy O'Brien represented Kent in the annual Kent Tournament on May 23.

1981 Kent Varsity Tennis — BOYS

The 1980 record of 10-5 was the best since my arrival at Kent in 1966, BUT the 1981 Kent Varsity Tennis Team had an even more fantastic season, winning 11 and losing only 3. Even though we had lost numbers 1, 3, and 6, we approached the '81 season optimistically, not only because Tri-Captains Rob Richardson (2), Cosmo Constable (4), and "The Surgeon" Dave Gow (5) were returning along with Dan "Iamar" Iamartino (7), but also three newcomers filled out the roster — Rob "Mazz" Mazzucchelli, the American Express card-toter from Providence, R.I., was destined to be #1 from the moment he arrived, Chip Burch from Richmond, Va., and another Montclairite — Dodge Bingham. The following ladder remained fairly constant for most of the season: Mazz, Rob R., Cosmo, Dave, Iamar, Chip, and Dodge. Each player had a solid winning record and contributed to the success of the season — Dave and Iamar led the group in singles with 11-3, and Dave and Cosmo had another banner year in doubles winning 11 of 13.

The highlights had to be our first victory (5-4) over Hotchkiss since 1971, a CLOSE 4-5 loss to League Champion Kingswood — a match we should have won, and a 3-6 loss to Westminster that could have gone either way. The first highlight was our fabulous week in Richmond, thanks to the marvelous hospitality of Judy and Dana Burch — it set the tone for the whole spring. Our team was a cohesive and fun-loving group orchestrated by the antics of "The Spider" — the coaches enjoyed the season as much as the players — thanks, guys!

UNPRECEDENTED AND UNDEFEATED IN THE U.S.

The 1981 season for KSBC will put this year's First and Second Boats in the company of the great crews of Kent School and of American Schoolboy Rowing. The unprecedented success enjoyed by both crews was the tangible dividend from endless miles of practice and 18 young men demanding perfection from themselves. We started the year with a challenge to be the only Kent crew to successfully defend a "national title". With each race the crews gained maturity, confidence, and speed. An early indication of the potential took place just eight days after we first got on the water in Florida when the Dartmouth Varsity Lightweights, First Dartmouth Heavyweight Freshmen, and Tampa Freshmen were left far astern in a 2000 meter race. Other highlights of the season included an unforgettable visit by Radley College, England, an "official" win over the Yale Varsity Lightweights for the first time since 1967, a resounding victory over a West German Youth Eight and seven other crews in Delaware, a hard fought victory over Holy Spirit High School, and the culmination of the domestic season with a ten second smashing of the Worcester record. The Second Eight had equally impressive credentials — in fact, no American School Crew was ever within a length of either First or Second crew!

The Netherlands, Radley, Marlow, Reading and . . . Henley

Early in the season we began considering a trip to Europe. The unfortunate age restriction at Henley (no Kent crew would ever have qualified under the present rules for the Princess Elizabeth Cup) dictated that we would have to enter either the Thames Cup or Ladies Plate. Thus, as we left the Netherlands, the crew was very realistic about the odds we faced. A wonderful stay in Amsterdam which included rowing on the beautiful River Amstel, through the canals of the city, and then on to the international course, the Bosbaan, plus unusual sightseeing made this a wonderful start. Next, we arrived at Radley College where we were greeted by our friends and were to spend five incredible days renewing friendships and our rivalry, and seeing this beautiful school. Radley could not have been more hospitable and the dinner in the Hall was a highlight of our visit. Next, we moved on to Marlow where we quickly adjusted to our new boat and another strange piece of water. The opening heat was a decisive victory, as was our second race of the day, the semi-finals and thus a berth in the finals against Emanuel School and Orange Coast College of California. We took command early as we won Kent's first trophy at the Marlow Regatta. The next week we trained in Henley and it was evident that the speed we had held in the United States had returned to the boat. The Reading Town Regatta is an 800 meter "shoot out" and Kent was initially entered in three events. An opening heat of Senior B provided a real scare as St. Edward's School led us off the line. The crew responded and rowed through St. Edward's and Clare College, Cambridge, posting a time that was a new record for this event. The heat of Elite B produced our second win of the day over Thames Tradesmen and Pangbourne and thus we moved into the finals of Senior B where once again the gigantic collegians from Orange Coast were second to the Kent crew. Twenty minutes after this victory we were on the line against the Yale Junior Varsity Heavyweights in the finals of Elite B. We had run out of gas! But, finished a credible second to Yale.

While the Reading Town Regatta was in progress, Mr. Perry attended the Henley Draw in his capacity as a Steward. The Draw was not good to us as our opening race was to be against the London Rowing Club who in reality are the World Champion Lightweight Eight. The crew accepted this turn with the determination that had marked each previous challenge. The week produced impressive practices — and, at 9:35 on July 2nd Kent was ready! While we went down to defeat, the race this school crew rowed against this seasoned World Champion was one of the highlights of our incredible season . . . at the finish we were a mere  $\frac{3}{4}$  lengths behind the crew that was to go on to the Finals. Kent refused to crack and gained the admiration not only of their opponents, but of everyone at Henley. It was a shame such a great race had to be so early, but the crew accepted it with dignity, realizing that they had given their best. Ironically we can say the finest moments of this outstanding crew came not in victory but in defeat.

Sailing

This year's Varsity Sailing Team started out slowly but they ended the season with perhaps the best performance in the team's history. With an abundance of returning talent, as well as a number of promising newcomers, coaches Scott, Clark, and Nargesian had visions of a banner season. However, after carefully choosing a varsity team, Hotchkiss came to Kent and caught us napping beating us 3-0. Next the team traveled to Taft. Racing in the lightest airs all season we suffered another setback, losing 3-1. Now, more determined than ever, we went to Williston and won our first meet. After victories to Amity High School and Taft, we went south to Annapolis to compete in the Cressy Cup and Mallory Cup, two national invitationals. Without the assistance of Matt Holmes, and with inconsistent sailing we could only manage a ninth of 21.

In order to qualify for the Team Race Championships at Harvard, we needed consecutive wins against Northfield-Mt. Herman and Taft. After a challenging win over Mt. Herman, Taft came to Lake Waramaug. A 3-0 drumming of Taft, a team Kent hadn't defeated in ten years before this season, put a very satisfying touch on the season. At the Team Race Championships the team put in its finest performance of the season, finishing third. In so doing we defeated St. Georges for the first time in Kent history.

Next year's team should have no problem gilling the spots that the seniors are leaving. A host of talent returns as well as members of this year's undefeated JV team. The Varsity Team consisted of Matt Holmes, Gail Dodge, John Schleck, Mimi Lorson, Sarah Nickerson, Clay Griffith, James Bodell, Lach Elting, Howard Seymour, and Melanie Morris. We wish the best to departing coaches Miss Clark, and her never ending patience, and Miss Nargesian. Many thanks to Head Coach Mr. Scott and the ever efficient Mary Logan.

Thanks to all and good luck!

Intramural riding competes

by ANDY HARDISTY

This Parents' Weekend the Kent riding program will complete its intramural competition with stadium jumping today and cross country competition on Sunday. Dressage has been completed in the three day event, which has been spread out over several weeks. At the advanced level the standings are: first, Julie Life riding Bullwinkle, second, Britt Bernheim on Shiela and third Christie Foster on The Lark. Forty riders are participating in this year's competition, more people than were involved in the entire riding program just ten years ago.

Riders sweep

Kent riders swamp

by ANDY HARDISTY

The show was over half way completed when I arrived at the Kent School Stables. I walked across the grounds, glancing at the show in progress. It had started at 8:30 in the morning, but most of the participants had been at the stable long before then.

I made my way to one of the barns, and into the tack room, which is where the riders keep much of their equipment. I relaxed in one of the chairs circularly arranged in the room and picked up a magazine lying next to it: "Horse Illustrated", my favorite. I was engrossed in an article concerning the prevention of barn fires when the loudspeaker announced the commencement of the Junior Working Hunter Class. This class was performed in the stables spacious indoor ring, while the Jumper Classes were taking place outdoors. Amy Ylvisaker, a Kent rider, captured place in the class, which judges place in the class, which judges composure of the horse, as completes a series of jumps. She went on to win the Junior Division. Ries Robinson placed in the class, followed by Davidson in fourth place.

This was an impressive showing Kent riders, who had been doing well all day. Part of this success was due to the sheer number of Kent riders entered into competition. Most of the 60 students enrolled in this riding program participated in the increasing popularity of riding at Kent, which had but 35 riders three years ago. And, as the enrollment had increased, so has the staff, which this year added Kate Viles and Keneen McNiven.

When the class was finished, I went to the food and drink stand set up for the show. There I bought food and drink. I then watched parts of the Junior Jumpers Category, one of three sections of competition. The other two are Hunter's and Equitation, which are divided into divisions of three classes each. Cori Dohman and Erika Hogg, both of Kent School, tied for the Junior division Champion. Puch's category

'58's claim to immortality that year ended in catastrophe. Decided that the sixth form should not monopolize the honor of having numerals on a rock, the class, led by Schoel and Don Juan Lar, compiled a storehouse of painting equipment, and one dark and rainy evening ventured down onto the newly demarshed soccer field to emblazon a staggering "58" in bright red on the rock there. When Moose Maresca and his fellow prefects spied the handiness they called the lot of us out of study hall and set us to work with paint remover, determined to eradicate any trace of foreign matter. Finally to the tune of a tortured taps, played by Ruddy Turnbull, a torch was applied and our numerals were fried off permanently, not to reappear until the approved day on the approved rock.

1958 KENT

The new boys at Kent have been introduced to one of the greater institutions at Kent. On Wednesday morning, following the blizzard, they were presented with shovels. Hitherto, shovels had been hypothetical implements, and new boys were told that they were given out before examinations and term essays. However, soon the luckless boys with yard jobs could be seen bent sinfully over the shovels in their effort to remove the snow and ice from the walks. From now until spring's happy advent, the scrape of steel against hard ice will be a common sound, and for ice a can will be much preferred over a yard job.

The Kent News
December 5, 1945

For as long as can be remembered, the senior classes have ruled at Kent. From no jobs, to no waiting, to being able to sting hours, the fifth form has always been the privileged class. But the underformers have formed an attack. The most radical position in this force is usually held by the fifth form, which, while still patiently enduring that last year of underformership, has grown old enough and wise enough to seek revenge.

On Saturday night. Innocent senior girls go down to the Boys' School for a dance, flirting and socializing — not knowing something is about to miss. Do any of them notice the missing fifth formers from their campus? No! And the attack proceeds. Room by room senior room is snuck into: drawers are opened and underwear snatched. Each garment is labeled with its owners' name, strung together, and then stuffed into a bag. Senior girls come up from the dance. They are so tired, they don't realize what they soon will be missing.

Sunday morning, the fifth form force continues. Hanging their newly strung banner across the Boys' School auditorium for the Boys' Job Assembly to view, they feel proud and accomplished. But no! Bruce and Mike Dutton, two prominent senior heroes, rush to their classmates' defense, snatching down the long worked-on banner.

How many more attacks will the sixth form tolerate before they give back? The only answer for all forms is to beware! The year has just begun.

A stern faced man approaches a small group of trembling new boys fresh off their first day's assignment. No smiles are to be seen . . . anywhere. As the towering figure confronts his inferiors, the forehead draping below his standard military crew cut strains as his face tightens to bellow the command, "Alright boys, hit the deck and give me thirty!!!!"

West Point? Annapolis? Or better yet a scene from "Patton" or "Gomer Pyle"? Not quite. The person giving the commands is neither a sergeant in boot camp or George C. Scott, but a typical headwaiter in the Boys' School dining hall.

There are places I remember all my life,
Though some have changed,
Some forever, not for better,
Some have gone and some remain
— Beatles —

Kent, it's been an experience I never want to repeat. Let's hope that the new headmaster changes you for the better.

Many thanks to Daddy, Mom, and Carolyn for leaving me alone. I hope you make it through Gordon, all it takes is endurance.

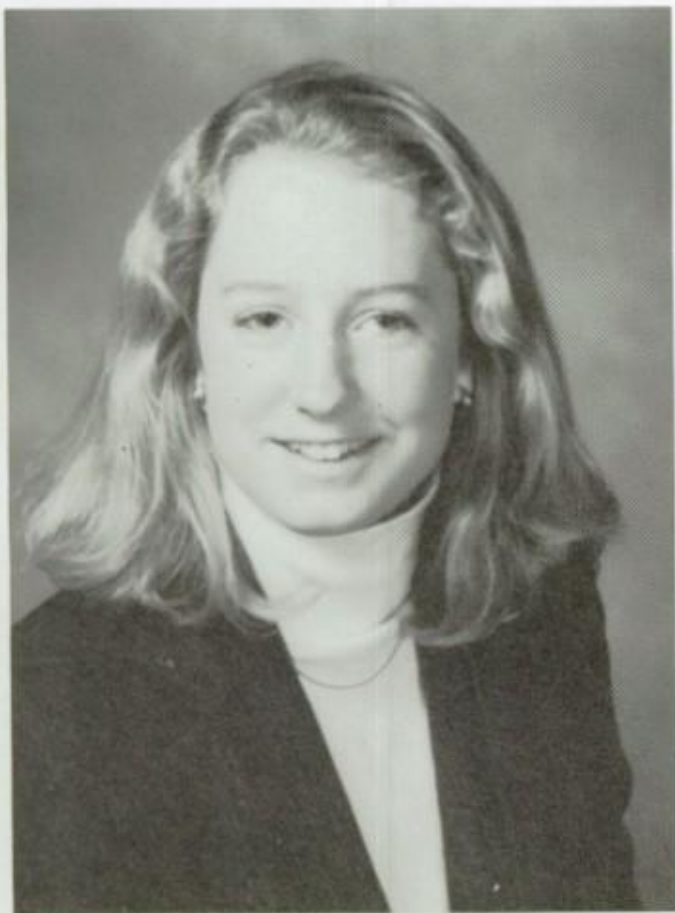

You were a great Easter Rabbit, Melissa. Never let yourself be bored, Ann. Disorder and Procrastination. Apartment Life agrees with us n'est ce pas, Banana? Nicht wahr, Bliz?

To mention in these few lines all of the people who made my four years at Kent a learning, growing, and most of all an enjoyable experience would be impossible. In your hearts you know who you are and in mine I will never forget you.

I would like to thank my parents without whose love and care these four years could not have been possible.

School — Supertramps Poetry. To be the student at Kent — I am a rock Simon & Garfunkle. The time has come for me to leave the valley land of Kent and all the influences it ever played on me. I wish I could have reached out to many of you and expressed some of the feelings we both understood but I could never find the courage and maybe I never will — Perhaps if we meet again I could tell you how much you meant to me. To those who knew me I need not say anymore — We know true friendships last forever and are always remembered. I am so thankful to you for being there to create the whole experience for me — It took a lot out of me but we made it through the storm. I must leave now never to return as a participant — It's all over. Enjoy yourself its later than you think — Stay up.

It's been 3 years filled with people & experiences that I've both loved & hated. It is only now that I realize how much Kent has made me grow & how valuable this time has been . . . My warmest love & appreciation to all the people who have entered my life since I came here. There is no need to list the names, the ones I hold close to my heart know who they are. I will never forget them . . . All my love to all of my family for pushing me on to the next step in life. That next step is the hardest & without your love & support, I wouldn't have even found the stair case.

So, it's all over, finished just like a painting. In these four years it's taken so many color intensities, hues, and values to create the smiles, loneliness, anger, satisfaction, and joy I've felt. This painting could be a cracking egg from which I'll emerge or a car which I'm stepping out of. It is something so fresh I want to hide it in the back of my closet knowing that someday it will be hung proudly. Its artists are everywhere and everything. Each person and each moment have all held the painter's brush. The painting is a complete image now, never to be retouched. What does it all mean? Grace Slick said, "The greatest thing you'll ever learn, is to love and be loved in return." I reflect and ask, What does it all mean?

Four years of nondescript food, decadence, deceit, and diffidence, sound and fury, trivialities and distractions. Isolation in the wilds of Western Connecticut, those who make life at Kent a joy and those who make it hell. Some of the people here I'll remember all my life, some I'll never think of again, a few I'll hold in eternal contempt, and some I'll pity. Here are a few abstruse initials for those who know what they mean: FYC, SPAM, OFC, ACC, KKK, PMC, WLC. "The true way goes over a rope which is not stretched at any great height but just above the ground. It seems more designed to make people stumble than to be walked upon."

"He who has the Son has life he who has not the Son has not life." (1 John 5:12). I tell you this; you have no chance of Heaven unless you believe in the only Son of God. God created man so that man's life is not full until he finds God. Otherwise, man's life is always lacking. The true meaning and true happiness of life are not found until one is, "Born again." Jesus said, "Unless you are born again you will not see the Kingdom of God." (John 3:3) What is your destiny after this life? Bye

Six months as a non-immigrant alien . . . I wish it could have been six hundred. KENT = the chance to live somebody else's life for a while, to meet new people, develop new interests, explore a vast and exciting country and to be accused of having an accent when I ask someone to pass the bananas or tomatoes. I should like to propose a toast . . . To decadence and deceit; to a form of pity called contempt for those to whom we give existence; to parents who have done most in doing less; to perceiving F. Scott Fitzgerald in all I see and seeing Zelda in all I perceive; to us, CEG, whom they can't see from up here; to Jenny's inspiration, Emma's nympho-sensibility Erika's walk — someday they will head the sexual revolution; to Norm and the acclaiming of the shrew; to Cecily and the birds of appetite to a Providence; to the clubs and ruts we have known; and finally to the dawning of a new era . . . What can I say about a place I both loved and hated . . . My friends made it all right . . . you and me, we go together, why I can't explain, if it's some strange attraction I hope it never ends. A hug when I was down has saved 1000 tears. A time to laugh and a time to cry. Be happy together, and drown in each others tears. Because of you I survived . . . Because of you I have cried. I loved you all. You know who you are. I love you; Becca, Dot, Anna, Liz, Melissa, Fig . . . "It's the damage that we do you'll never know. "We dreamers have our ways of facing rainy days and somehow we survive; we keep the feelings warm and protect them from the storm until our time arrives; then one day the sun appears and we come shining through those lonely years, I've made it through the rain, I kept my point of view, I made it through the rain and found myself respected by the others who got rained on too and made it through." Coach Theobald and family, I appreciate everything you have done in my behalf, thanks football champs 76,78,80. Coach G and family, thanks B-ball, real champs 80, coach of the year. Coach P and Mrs P, Thanks for your friendship. Mr. & Mrs MAC, thanks for the nice shorts. Mr Brown you are the greatest. Thanks Mr Bragdon & Mr Perry. C.B.T. —

You have done it without a touch, without a word, without a sigh. You have done it by being yourself. Perhaps that is what being a friend means after all. Our friendship won't be erased with the passage of time. Congrats. You made it! Thanks for the best friendship I have — may it stay that way —

Luv,
Blair

KENT MARKET

Good Luck
'81

Surrounded by the rural mountains and waters of Kent, Connecticut, a rustic barn provides the setting for a spectacular show. Drawing molten magic from the hearts of his furnaces, Stephen Fellerman marries deep and brilliant colors in designs of flowing movement. Tools flash deftly over the glowing gather of glass; apprentices dash back and forth between the furnaces with fresh, burning colors; foreheads glisten in the rich radiance of intense heat.

Spinning, twirling, almost dancing, with the force of his breath Fellerman forms the proportions of classical perfection at the end of his blowpipe. The form is transferred from blowpipe to pontil and once again plunged into a furnace. Quickly the lip is trimmed and shaped with wet wood, which hisses clouds of steam and bursts into flame.

What has now become a vase is fumed and fired in flaring flame for just the right amount of iridescent shimmer. The room bathes in hot light until the furnace door closes. The glow fades from the newly created vase as it is carefully separated from the pontil ... another piece is done.
